Ike States GOP Has Big Heart

EN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER, Oct. 29 (AP)—President Eisenhower, striving to win a vote for himself, came out today with an industrial Detroit audience today his administration is solving the unemployment problem without war because "we have a government with a heart."

Police Inspector Arthur J. Held estimated a crowd of 50,000 persons jammed Cadillac square in front of the city hall to hear Eisenhower declare:

"I am quite sure we do not want to pay for false prosperity in the blood of our sons on the battlefield. As he did earlier in Cleveland, the President said properly during the Democratic administration was based on war."

He pledged that America will never, during his administration, resort to war to solve unemployment.

Eisenhower's Detroit stop was his second of the day on a fast-paced flying campaign tour taking him into Ohio, Kentucky and Delaware en route to Michigan.

In Detroit, administration critics have been pointing to joblessness in the opposition campaign-to-lose to Democrats to Congress and state officials.

"How did unemployed get jobs in 1949 or 1950?" the President asked his audience.

"They either went to war or worked in a war plant. We have properly maintained peace since."

The President said "unemployment is heartache. It is privation, discouragement."

He added that so long as a single American is out of work his administration never will cease its efforts to solve the problem. Eisenhower also told the Detroit audience:

"By the way, Karl E. Guenther, who we measure wealth of the nation, this is by far our best year."

"Things are on the upswing," he added. "The best analysts in the world think as there will be more cars produced next year than ever before."

Glen Taylor Files $100,000 Law Suit Against Hawthorth

POCATELLO, Oct. 29 (AP)—Attorneys for Glen M. Taylor today filed a $100,000 suit for slander in Bannock county district court in behalf of Taylor, naming the ex-actor's secretary, Ross Hawthorth, as defendant. The complaint asserted that Hawthorth "did willfully and with malicious intent to injure the plaintiff publisher and procure to be published the following statements concerning the plaintiff, none of which are true or have any verity in fact."

Haworth was Taylor's secretary in 1945-46, the first two years of his term, as governor.

The complaint stated that Hawthorth was discharged for the reason that the defendant forged or altered a check for $10,000 which when presented to the proper authorities would cause an increase in salary to the defendant and the defendant's wife, who also was employed in the office of the plaintiff.

Taylor, in the suit, named attorneys B. A. McCallister, Pocatello, and Orest Fritsch, American Falls, listed as false a number of statements attributed to Hawthorth.

Among these was the assertion made by Hawthorth in his statement released to the press yesterday in which he said Taylor was a "political boss" and had followed the communist line.

Haworth Says He's Delighted With Law Suit

POCATELLO, Oct. 29 — Ross Hawthorth, Glen M. Taylor's former secretary, said today he was "delighted" that the ex-governor has filed a slander suit against him.

"I Taylor wants to sue me, fine," Hawthorth said. "This record will show that I am a decent, honest man. I am simply a desperate campaign maneuver to try and convince the voters that I am a 'communist'."

Haworth added that he seriously doubted if Taylor would win the "poor judgment" to bring the suit to trial.

British Order Pair to Leave Red's Capital

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The foreign office said today it had recalled two members of the British embassy in Moscow because of "trouble" with Soviet government officials.

Recall of the two embassy members was announced after the London Daily Telegraph reported they "knocked out" several Russian policemen in a brawl that followed a party.

The incident occurred shortly before Labor Party Leader Clement Attlee's official visit today to the Soviet Union.

The foreign office said the British and Soviet governments "nailed up" the brawl, which it said, showed the Russians treat British diplomats easier than they do Americans.

The newspaper compared this with the diplomatic fluster with the serious repercussions which followed detention of Mrs. Betty Jans, a British woman, in Moscow.

The foreign office said in confirming the telegram's report, declined to disclose the names of the two alleged embassy staff members.

"Junior and no longer in government service."

Both employees were ordered to leave Russia by British Ambassador Sir William Hayter following the "naughty" some three months ago.

No protests were exchanged between the Russians and the British, the foreign office said.

The telegram pointed to the contrast between the incident and the election of the two American women.

Wide Use of Natural Gas Is Foreseen

BOISE, Oct. 29 (U-P)—A consulting engineer testified yesterday that Idaho's natural gas company expects to make natural gas available, if desired, to more than 95 per cent of homes in 27 southern Idaho communities by the end of 1956 if its proposed operation is approved.

George W. Carpenter, gas engineer for Stone and Webster Engineering Corporation, New York, was the first witness for Idaho Natural Gas which opened its case following completion of testimony by International Gas company.

Carpenter, who was in charge of a study which Stone and Webster made in drawing up a plan for the Idaho operation, said it would cost the company an estimated $125 to install facilities to supply a home with natural gas.

The firm was the second of three to present its case to the Idaho public utilities commission. The commission is hearing applications to distribute natural gas to be piped through Idaho by Pacific Northwest Pipelines Corporation.

Idaho Natural Gas has yet to make its presentation. Carpenter testified that cost of the gas itself would be about $1.40 per cubic foot. Natural Gas was estimated at $8.40,000. He said it was expected that 15 per cent of homes in the area would convert to natural gas by the end of 1956 and 50 per cent would be converted by the end of the five-year period covered by the study.

GI Electrocuted In Freak Mishap

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Oct. 29 (U-P)—One soldier was electrocuted and another was injured in a freak accident yesterday when a GI was piped Monday night, according to a report released by the army yesterday.

The report said two men were operating a crane in the depot when the boom struck a high-voltage line. Identification of the dead man was withheld pending notification of relatives. Pfc. Robert J. Brown was injured slightly in the accident. Both men were members of the service company of the Alaska general depot.

3 Killed, 23 Hurt In Tank Blow-up

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29 (U-P)—Three firemen were killed and 23 were injured, five of them seriously, yesterday when a 4,000-gallon chemical tank exploded in the rear of a north Philadelphia factory.

The tank was located in the rear of the two-story plant of the Charles W. Berg Laboratories, manufacturers of chemicals and oils.

The dead were Battalion Chiefs John J. News, 61, and John C. Marzani, 60, and Captain Thomas A. Kline, 58, who headed the firemen summoned to the scene when neighbors in the area complained of chemical fumes.

Choctaw Named To Indian Post

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (U-P)—Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay yesterday announced the appointment of Peni Parver, a Choctaw Indian, to direct the Indian bureau work in tribal affairs.

Parver, now superintendent at the Fort Hall agency, Fort Hall, Idaho, will coordinate the bureau's activities in connection with tribal government, tribal budget and tribal enrollment. He has worked for the Indian bureau for 44 years.

The old furling, still sometimes used in measurements, represented the distance it was supposed a yoke of oxen could plow without resting—"one furrow long" or 220 yards.

Sedimentation Cuts Capacity of Pioneer Reservoir in Gooding

GOODING, Oct. 22.—Nearly 30 per cent of the storage capacity of Pioneer reservoir on Clover creek has been lost through sedimentation, the soil conservation service reports.

The percentage of loss was established by using the top of the flashboards on the dam as the fixed spillway level. The loss of storage would be between 50 and 60 per cent, the report shows. The sedimentation study was made by Robert Dreht, Thomas Curtis and Zimel Mills, assisted by Elliot Maxman.

An erosion control program on the watershed would be beneficial in reducing reservoir sedimentation as well as in increasing watershed value, the survey reports. The degree of effectiveness of such a program would depend on a further analysis of erosion problems and the feasibility of control.

Most of the sediment consists of silt with some clay in the lower part and a minor amount of sand towards the upper end of the basin. The central portion of the basin contains the greatest volume of sediment, averaging about four feet. The vertical distance from the bottom of the outlet gate to the top of the flash boards is 11 feet above the greatest depth to stream channel originally was more than 18 feet.

Inspection of the area indicated that in some places sheet erosion had removed a large portion of the original soil. This was evidenced by asparagus located on soil clumps two to three inches above adjacent areas where grass had been removed by grazing. The survey shows that the rate of sediment production is about 0.75 acre feet per square mile or 81 cubic feet per acre.

The Rocky mountain and the Rockies led the way with increases far above other sections. In the Rockies attendance was up 16.40 per cent and in the east it was up 13.61 per cent.

Three-Word Formula Used as Iowa Builds

IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 29 (U.P.)—Forest "Evy" Evanshewski is a stern taskmaster who tattoos under the helmets of his Iowa football players a three-word formula for success—

"Work, drive and fight."

To play a savage, backfield blocker for Michigan in 1939-40, any player can expect to wear the bench if he doesn't work during practice and on Saturday afternoons.

3-Valley Boys Are in Idaho Frosh Lineup

MOSCOW, Oct. 29.—The Idaho football team, which played its first game Saturday with a tough University of Washington Husky team, will have three players from the 3-Valley area in its lineup.

The Vandals' Barber, some 35 years old, has worked for the first two practice weeks on fundamentals and defense.

For his early performance at town, Barber has given a 2-7 record and three tries for Iowa, Washington State and Hamilton college.

American Loop Owners Refuse to Approve Sale of A's to Syndicate

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (AP)—The groggy Philadelphia Athletics stayed in the hands of Mack family Thursday night after the bid of an eight-man Philadelphia syndicate, thumbed down by the American league in a six-hour meeting. According to one executive, the secret vote on the sale was 5-4.

Course Will Close

Denver to Get Skyline Acid Test Tonight

BAIT LAKE CITY, Oct. 29.—The race-to-ridges Denver Pioneer, looking for their first bona fide football championship since 1917, will get the acid test tonight against a team from an upstate hotel room.

Whether Johnson will make another bid to acquire the Mack stock was not decided. He said he wanted to see what the market was doing before deciding on his next step.

Nevertheless Denver is the best position of the other three contenders—Utah, Wyoming, and Utah State—mainly because of the schedule.

Arthur Rosenberg, Philadelphia club chairman who acted as spokesman for the group, said "we're very disappointed." "We don't know what we're going to do," he said.

From time to time the elderly Mr. Mack, who founded the club, came down from an upstairs hotel room, on the arm of his chauffeur. He left shortly before the official announcement was made.
